

WORLD COFFEE WITH FSV UCM IN TRNAVA

Discussion by social work experts

The third Tuesday in March is traditionally devoted to World Social Work Day. From behind the organization of this important day is IFSW, which on March 15, 2022 announced its 15th year. This year's IFSW initiative to celebrate World Social Work Day was on the theme: "Co-building a New Eco-social World: Leaving No One Behind". On the occasion of World Social Work Day, the Department of Social Services and Counselling FSV UCM in Trnava, on March 15, 2022, organized an event entitled "WORLD COFFEE WITH FSV UCM IN TRNAVA". The event was realized within the project APVV-20-0094 "Environmental justice in the context of social work". The aim of the event was to open a discussion on the readiness of social workers to engage in working together to build a new eco-social world. The informal online meeting, which was attended by social work experts from the Slovak Republic, the Czech Republic and Cyprus, took place through the MS Teams platform. Invited lectures were given by prof. Dr. Fahriye Altinay together with prof. Dr. Zehra Altinay, who introduced us to their scientific research activity and contribution in the field of social work. Prof. Dr. Fahriye Altinay and prof. Dr. Zehra Altinay works at the Educational Sciences Institute, Near East University of Nicosia and is also a member of the board of the Societal Research and Development Center at Near East University. Another guest who significantly contributed to the discussion was prof. PaedDr. Peter Jusko, PhD., who introduced us to the scientific research and volunteering activities of the Department of Social Work, Faculty of Education, UMB in Banská Bystrica. The main guarantor of the event was prof. PhDr. Mgr. Jana Levická, PhD., who is also the responsible researcher of the APVV project. The previous outputs from the research carried out within the project were presented by Mgr. Michaela Vaceková and Mgr. Martin Gál, PhD.
